Extract from the proceedi[illegible] of the meeting of the Education Committee of the Economic Confe[illegible] held on the 11th August 1914 in[illegible] the subject of Itinerant Teachers brought up by the Secretary to the Committee.

The accompanying note on employing itinerant teachers prepared b the Secretary, Education Committee was read to the members. The Committee, while fully agreeing to the proposal, resolved that six itinerant teachers be employed as an experimental measure for a period of one year, that two schools be started in each of the taluks of Bangalore, Mysore and Tumkur and that three villages in which there are no schools be in charge of each teacher.

It was further resolved that the cost might be on the scale suggested in the Secretary's note, that the total cost should not exceed Rs.2,000/- and that the scheme be carried out by the Education Department on the lines suggested in the note and the progress of the experiment watched.

SIR,

With reference to your letter No.1020/Edn.12-14 dated 4th November 1914, I have the honour to state that the allowance of Rs.7 per mensem proposed for the itinerant teachers in my letter No.4484/198 dated 15th September 1914 is meant as a fixed travelling allowance. It may be raised later on if found necessary. The Masters' duties will all be within a radius of about three miles.

As regards the source from which the Masters' pay and allowances may be met, I propose that the cost may be met from the provision of Rs.5,000/- included in the Budget under (4) Government Schools, General for providing Practical Instruction in Elementary Schools.

The ordinary contingent expenses will be met from the existing allotment in the Budget.
